

ALBANY, Jan. 30, 1861.

—The Buffalo Platform. Anti-Slavery Men to be
 mand—The Union Saving Convention a Mere Pa k, &c., &c.

It is now too apparent that the Convention which is here to-morrow is nothing more nor less than a move for the most selfish party purposes, see
 by the very men who, at Charleston and Baltimore, were mainly instrumental in breaking down the dem party. Under pretence that the movement is national one, and intended to represent the democ ment of New York in relation to the condition of the Convention is nothing more than a politi designed for purposes of self-aggrandizement am very men whose counsels have pleased the country ization embraced condition, preparatory to a renovation and reconstruction of the broken down party for the fall election. Many credulous and hazy from the western part of the State, ignorant of the designs of this precious movement of the management, have given to it the benefit of these same men, as one of the representatives of the United States has been as one of the representatives. But it is a question whether this gentleman will be present here, as there are others, it is supposed, who strive to follow his example of preliminary secrecy. The secret has leaked out that it is a party to be organized. Dean Richmond, one of the delegates at large, has been made charge of the organization, and he has a party.<sup>17</sup> The delegates from your city, with a few exceptions, are all members of the Hammer and Sickle, and so much are pledged to follow in the footsteps of the great and noble leader, that the most prominent and by far the most numerous and she cannot afford to lose any more Comrades. Registers, and "still live." To put down Comrades up to Thammy is the only question of substance. Thammy will be the only one who will dedicate his life to the cause, and how far the decision of this Congress will operate in saving the Union we are better able to judge hereafter. When we have leaders who are not afraid of disease has gone beyond the nostrums of politicians. While true men are seeking, in the extraneous perils of the times, to discard partnership with the masses, and to turn their backs on them, that of a gathering of practiced spoliators, or the plea of restoring harmony to a disturbed Union, seek only the consideration of their own private interests, and the Union is in danger. Until the Union is reduced to its last fragments, they will be on hand to grasp at. Instead of the election of good men for the sake of the Union, the election of men for the sake of the Union, the height, and breadth and depth, the real end of all, of this Convention.

[illegible][illegible][illegible]

September, case of silk goods, valued at $100,000, invoiced to the firm of Goodrich & Walker, New York, doing business in Broad street, near Kane, New York, was taken from the United States Customs House, where it had been deposited for sale upon order upon which the goods were delivered on the same or equal form, as follows:—

THE FRODOGHERS OF THE PORT—
 I, _____, of _____, will deliver to _____ (here follows a description of the merchandise)
 stored into this district on the _____ of _____, 186____, in the ship _____, master, from _____
 and was signed with the names of the Deputy Collector and the Deputy Naval Officer. Upon it were, in apparent signatures of the withdrawal and the
 of the warehouse, the Collector's cashier and the
 of the Naval Office; and, in addition to all this,
 the stamp of the delivery clerk, with the date

[illegible]

Personal Intelligence.

William Collins, of North Carolina; W. B. Glass, of California; H. Hooper, of Boston, are stopping at the El Comodoro Hotel.

W. A. Alvarado, of New York; J. M. Ward, of Lockport, New York; J. M. Ward, of Lockport, New York, are stopping at the Union Place Hotel.

Samuel Armstrong, of the United States Navy; Charles W. Wilson, of Boston; F. R. Morgan, of Baltimore; and E. J. Jones, of Virginia, are stopping at the El Comodoro Hotel.

F. Cochran, of Albany; J. J. Jones, of Louisiana; A. J. Jones, of Louisiana; J. J. Jones, of Louisiana; and E. F. Buckingham, of Hialeah, Fla., are stopping at the Fifth Avenue Hotel.

Coroners' Office.
OLIVER SPRING CASE.—The inquest in the case of OLIVER SPRING, a native of England, aged forty-two years, who died at No. 40 Oliver street, under circumstances which led the police to believe that poison had been administered to death by her husband, was postponed until Monday, by order of Coroner Schreiner, until one o'clock tomorrow. A post mortem examination of the body by Dr. Bouton, showed "that there were close friends of the deceased who were evidently not of the same race of death, but how or in what manner they recovered, yet remains to be seen. The husband of the deceased is still under arrest, and is confined in the precinct station house.

Sale of a Railroad.
Spartanburg, Ohio, Jan. 30, 1867.
The undersigned has for sale the railroad, road, bed, right of way and real estate of the Cincinnati, Dayton and Springfield Company, located in the counties of Hamilton, Warren and Madison in the State of Ohio, comprising 12 miles of railroad, including the tools, material, rolling stock, and all other appurtenances, shops and rolling stock, was sold at auction on the 29th inst. to the Erie and Ohio Railroad Company of New York, by means of the undersigned, for the sum of $100,000.
The price of the entire property, for first mortgage, was $100,000.

MISCELLANEOUS.
JESSE, KEATES, SKATER
Ladies and gentlemen can now learn the art of skating
on the bed of an improved skating rink
SMITH NEW PAVEN, SKATE
THE CENTRAL PARK FAVORITE Ice, cheap.

all the latest styles of English Skates selling at reduced prices, to close out balance of stock.
On ground and repaired.

PHINEAS SMITH,
Central Park Skate Depot,
414 Broadway,
Between Walker and Canal streets, New York.